

Jacksonville Senior Center
Board Meeting
September 8, 2020

This meeting was a Webex meeting.

Meeting was managed by Barbara Franke.

-Jan Hebbertline was introduced. He is taking over Jean Fitz's position as county rep to JSC.

-Nutritionist Eileen McMahon to speak on 9/11/20 at 2:00pm about healthy eating. This will be a Webex.

-The deadline for the Art Contest/Silver Pen has been extended to Oct. 9.

-Expo will be virtual this year. More information will follow.

-Orville Hughes will be speaking to the Senior Digest soon. Orville will soon be celebrating his 100th birthday.

-Pete has been working on the 990.

-The Golf Tournament happened on 9/1. It was a good event and went well.

-Virtual programming will continue even after re-opening, therefore the Council must do Independent Contract Agreements with instructor when we reopen.

-Shred Day is cancelled for this year.

-Early and regular voting will take place at the Recreation site again this year. Early voting is Oct, 26, 27, 28, and 29. A ballot drop box will be located at the center this year.

-Census needs to be completed by end of September.

-Jean and Chuck are still working with the vendors about grant monies. The money is in our account and must be spent by end of November. They are looking at electronic sign-ins.

-Almarie has been meeting with the knitters to collect baby hats and deliver to the hospitals.

-The Senior Centers are to remain closed. No expected reopen date given yet.

-We will not have flu shots at the center this year.